

USS WEEDEN 2005 REUNION

Wilmington, North Carolina
September 25-28

Location: Historic Wilmington & NC's Cape Fear Coast encompasses the city of Wilmington and the island communities of Carolina Beach, Kure Beach and Wrightsville Beach. Just minutes from the beaches, Wilmington's picturesque riverfront emerges from the Cape Fear River. Gracing its banks is one of the state's largest historic districts, numbering approximately 230 blocks.

Across the river on Eagles Island rests the majestic Battleship

NORTH CAROLINA, a restored World War II memorial. Feast upon the Atlantic Ocean's bounty of fresh seafood, or enjoy a variety of ethnic cuisine and regional specialties, all served with Southern flair and hospitality. Lose track of time as you browse distinctive specialty and antique shops, clothing boutiques, shopping complexes, pottery outlets, and year-round holiday shops.

At day's end, relax outdoors and behold nature's beauty as the sun sinks into the river. Saunter along historic Wilmington's riverwalk.
